

D.C., GEO, 41B-

DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

WASHINGTON (Georgetown)

State

County

Town or Vicinity

14s
7P
9d

Oak Hill Cemetery, Chapel (DC-172)

Structure

350' NE. of cemetery entrance gates at 3001 R St., NW. (Georgetown). Potomac gneiss in random ashlar with red sandstone trim, 23'-2" x 41'-2" (four-bay flank), one story, gable roof, rose window above door in west (front) elevation, large lancet-arched stained-glass window with sandstone tracery on east elevation, similar smaller windows on side elevations separated by stepped buttresses, bell cote at peak of ridge on west, gothic finial on east,

INKED MYLARS, REPROD.,

PRINTS

(over)

Gothic Revival style; paneled ceiling with exposed beams. Built 1850; James Renwick, architect. Cemetery land, gatehouse, and chapel donated by philanthropist W. W. Corcoran. 14 sheets (1967, including site plan, plans, elevations, sections, details); 5 ext. photos (1968, 1969), 2 int. photos (1969); 9 data pages (1969).

Card prepared March 1974